Sinclair's Tourist Resort Burdwan Comes Up

Sinclair's Hotels & Resorts has introduced Sinclair's Tourist Resort Burdwan, the seventh property in the Sinclair's chain. Out of the seven properties of the hospitality chain, five are in West Bengal.

Located on the Golden Quadrilateral NH-2, the resort is spread over nearly four acres of land. The resort is an ideal getaway for those visiting Burdwan, Santiniketan and Durgapur.

Burdwan and Durgapur are important cities of West Bengal, whereas Santiniketan in West Bengal is a place of considerable tourism interest. At Santiniketan, Tagore did set up his innovative school, which was later expanded to a university.

The resort has 19 luxury rooms and a Maharaja suite. Other facilities include a fitness center, yoga room, swimming pool, squash court, badminton court, playzone and a reading lounge. There are a number of options for food and beverages at the newly opened resort. They include Palm Terrace, which is a multi-cuisine restaurant with an outdoor seating; Saffron, a fine dining Indian specialty restaurant; and O3, a lounge bar serving a variety of drinks. Gardenia is a fast food cafe, good for a quick bite.

A defining feature of the hospitality property is the large banqueting and conferencing facilities. Banquet hall Regal I & II together with the adjoining lawns can host parties for up to 2,000 persons. The resort is fast emerging as a popular banqueting and wedding venue.
