JUNE 2, 2020, 4:01 PM BY BY : TOURISM NEWS LIVE

In accordance with relaxations in lockdown conditions as announced by the West Bengal government, Sinclairs Burdwan is reopening its property from June 5.

The rooms, suite and the restaurant will start functioning from that date, but the bar will remain closed till further notice. The swimming pool also will not be operational.

At Sinclairs Burdwan, high standards of cleanliness will be maintained with special emphasis on hand washing hygiene to sanitising of guestrooms and common areas, the hotel said in a press release on Tuesday.

Sinclairs Burdwan is spread over approximately 4 acres of land and in view of its large banqueting space, both indoors and outdoors, meetings of up to 50 persons can be organized following strict social distancing norms.

Said Swajib Chatterjee, Chief Operating Officer, Sinclairs Hotels Limited, “The hotel has been fully sanitised and adequate safety and hygiene protocols have been followed to ensure that our guests have a safe, healthy and comfortable stay.”
