

Sinclairs Hotels Adds New Boutique Hotel In Yangang, Sikkim

T3 News Network / 10 December 2021

Sinclairs Hotels has signed an agreement to acquire on lease an 18 room brand new boutique property in Yangang, Sikkim. This property in South Sikkim will be the ninth property in the Sinclairs chain and its second property in Sikkim.

Spread over one acre of land, the property has a picturesque location with a panoramic view of the Maenam Hills popularly known as Bhalay-Dhunga.

The Sikkim Government is building a Ropeway to the famous Bhalay-Dhunga cliff, where a Sky Walk at a height of around 10,000 ft, the first of its kind in India is being constructed. Yangang is also the site for the sprawling Sikkim University being built by the State Government.

Sinclairs Yangang is targeting to commence operations from April 2022, in order to take advantage of the high summer season.
